Withholding Income Tax Payment and Filing Requirements

The information in this publication is current as of the date of the publication. Please visit our web site at tax.illinois.gov to verify you have the most current revision.

This publication is written in the plain English style so the tax information is easier to understand. As a result, we do not directly quote Illinois statutes and the Illinois Administrative Code. The contents of this publication are informational only and do not take the place of statutes, rules, and court decisions.

About this publication

This publication is about paying and reporting Illinois Withholding Income Tax. You need to know this information if you are an employer or withholding agent. There are three different payment and return schedules and every registered employer is assigned to one of the three. Household employers should refer to Publication 121, Illinois Income Tax Withholding for Household Employees, instead of this publication.

The objectives of this publication are to explain

- when and how to make your payments and file your returns, and
- the three different payment and return schedules.

Related publications: Publication 130, Who is Required to Withhold Illinois Income Tax. See Booklet IL-700-T, Illinois Withholding Income Tax Tables, to calculate withholding.
